recapping now for you once again, an explosion underground in the garage section of the World Trade Center in New York City.

CHARACTER 3

The first attack

CHARACTER 1

on the trade center in 93 was the first thing that woke everybody up in terms of the threat of terrorism.

CHARACTER 3

We said This is not a one time event. There is a larger movement here and they're planning on doing more.

The terrorists were burying themselves inside the ballooning communications network in the Internet and the phones, and so we had to figure out who was communicating with whom and who were the terrorists. And that was the whole idea of the thin thread program.

CHARACTER 4

Of all the analysts, Bill was by far the most astute.

CHARACTER 5

He was the person in the agency who knew the most about metadata.

CHARACTER 1

It was pretty clear that we were building theme, most powerful analysis tool that had been developed in history. The monitor basically the entire world
